PARENTAL GUIDANCE CONCERNING THE PARTICIPATION OF MINORS FOR THE SUMMER SCHOOL

Dear Parents,

Your child is a minor and thus, according to Article 106 of the German Civil Code (hereinafter "BGB"), not fully legally competent. Consequently, when making declarations of intent conferring more than purely legal benefits, according to Article 107 BGB your child also requires your consent pursuant to Articles 182 and 183 BGB. To ensure that the Summer School at Frankfurt School of Finance & Management gGmbH (hereinafter "Frankfurt School") runs as smoothly as possible, we therefore ask you to provide your child with your general consent for all legal transactions that may arise during and as part of this event by signing the following declaration.

Please submit the signed general consent form (see overleaf), together with copy/copies of your identity card(s) or passport(s).

The consent covers all event-related activities, your child's independent exercise of all rights and obligations as a participant in the Summer School, as well as the performance of all associated legal transactions, plus any actions resembling legal transactions inasmuch as they relate directly or indirectly to participation in the Summer School.

At the same time, by giving your consent, you acknowledge that the custodial duty of care for your child as a minor continues to be incumbent upon you and not upon Frankfurt School, its members, associates, employees or other persons acting on its behalf. Furthermore, you hereby acknowledge that any liability on the part of Frankfurt School is expressly excluded.
Furthermore, we ask for your consent that all correspondence from Frankfurt School may be sent directly to your child. With respect to the use of the library and IT services, we expressly draw your attention to the following: Your child will have the opportunity to use Frankfurt School's library and IT services. This includes unrestricted access to the Internet. Frankfurt School takes no personal or technical precautions to ensure the protection of minors. By submitting this declaration, you acknowledge that neither Frankfurt School, its members or employees, associates, representatives or other persons acting on its behalf, are responsible for complying with the Youth Protection Act as it may apply to your child; instead, such compliance continues to be your responsibility.
With thanks,
Frankfurt School
