

Welcome to Frankfurt School

Information Package

Welcome to Frankfurt am Main!

The most international city in Germany, the largest financial centre on the continent, the historical city of coronations, the city of Goethe and the Frankfurt School!

Tourist Attractions

Frankfurt has a great variety of cultural offerings and enjoys an excellent reputation at both national and international level. There are more than 50 museums and exhibition halls situated in the city centre, attracting thousands of tourists every year.

1. Römerberg and Römer

Römerberg is an irregularly shaped square with the Justice Fountain (Gerechtigkeitsbrunnen) at its center. Located between the Römer building complex, with its 11 lovely buildings faithfully reconstructed from original 15th- to 18th-century floorplans, and the seat of the Frankfurt city administration since the 15th century, Römerberg is Frankfurt's most picturesque public square. As the site of numerous imperial coronations, trade fairs and Christmas markets, it is the historic heart of the medieval Altstadt (old town).

2. Frankfurt Main Tower

Main Tower is a 56 – storey, 200m (656 ft.) skyscraper in the Innestadt district of Frankfurt. It has been named after the nearby Main River. The building is the only skyscraper in Frankfurt with a public viewing platform. Main tower is one the tallest buildings in Germany and the 4th tallest in Frankfurt.

3. Imperial Cathedral

officially Imperial Cathedral of Saint Bartholomew is a Roman Catholic Gothic church located in the centre of Frankfurt am Main. Despite its common English name, it has never been a true cathedral (episcopal see), but is called the Kaiserdom (an "imperial great church" or imperial cathedral) or simply the Dom due to its importance as former election and coronation church of the Holy Roman Empire.

4. Palm Garden

In the heart of Frankfurt, there is a plant paradise with plants from all corners of the world. Without having to get out of the city, visitors can discover the fascinating variety of the botanical world. Between paths and green spaces, this Palmengarten presents a whole diversity of thematic gardens and greenhouses.

5. Alte Oper Frankfurt

The original opera house in Frankfurt is now the Alte Oper. The building was inaugurated in 1880 but destroyed by bombs in 1944. It was rebuilt in 70s and re-inaugurated in 1981. The square in front of the building is known as Opernplatz (Opera Square). The Alte Oper is located in the inner city district.

6. Hauptwache

The Hauptwache (English: "Main Guardroom") is a central point of Frankfurt am Main and is one of the most famous plazas (German: An der Hauptwache) in the city. It lies to the west of Konstablerwache with both squares linked by the Zeil, the central shopping area of the city.

7. Alt-Sachsenhausen

In the narrow cobblestone lanes and small squares with frame houses and fountains, visitors feel like they have been transported back in time. Along the large and small Rittergasse, Paradiesgasse and Klappergasse, "Epelwoi Pubss" (Appel Wine) are lined up one after the other.

8. Museumsufer

The museum embankment (Museumsufer) is one of the most important locations for museums in Germany and Europe. Through this unique experience along both sides of the Main, the city enjoys an excellent reputation among art lovers. Here are some of the renowned museums you can find: Museum of Communication, Museum of German Architecture, German Film Museum, Museum of Modern Art, Städel Museum and many more.

If you are interested in artistic performances, The Frankfurt Opera House and the Theatre are the right places to go. The English Theatre and International Theatre of Frankfurt both offer foreign-language productions.
