APPLICATION CHECKLIST

Admission test score report

Enter your GMAT or GRE score in the online application. Please note, that we can only consider your application for an admission interview once we have received your score report. You are welcome to upload the unofficial report / test taker report once you have received it. However, the official institution report also needs to be sent to us for verification. Our institution code for the GRE is 7573 and the code for the GMAT is FCB-RP-36.

As an alternative to the GMAT/GRE, we offer an internal Frankfurt School MBA Admission Test upon request for qualified candidates. The test will assess your approach to problem solving, communication, numerical & factual data management, logical thinking.

If you are interested in our internal admissions test, please tick the box. Please note, the test is administered online via a shared link.

English proficiency certification

Please submit a TOEFL or IELTS score report. You are welcome to upload a screenshot of your results. However, we would also need the official institution report from ETS. Our institution code for the TOEFL is 0239. In certain cases, you may qualify for a waiver from our language requirement. Applicants who are native English speakers, who have earned an academic degree taught in English, or who have spent a minimum of one year studying/working in English may qualify for a waiver.

Reference letters (2 in total)

The first letter should be from your current or most recent employer. If you are self-employed or work for a family business, please ask for a letter from a client or someone who does business with you. The second letter can be from another work supervisor, former professor, or someone who has worked with you in an organisation, club, or project. Please ask your referees to either submit a signed letter on official institution letterhead or to use our Frankfurt School MBA Recommendation Form (found online) and upload the documents to your application. You may also send your reference requests directly to your referees through our online application system.
