

Post Merger Integration (PMI) Process – A modular approach to develop group-wide guidelines for integrating acquired companies.

Possible content:

- Identification/ Definition of participating business domains/functions/ and parties
- Identification of Project process structure (e.g. whether lean or waterfall or , etc., and whether time-bound, content-bound, or cost-bound)
- Communication concept
- Definition of success criteria and milestones
- Development of regular weekly and monthly team processes and respective management tools (i.e. Excel)
- Development of feedback and process evaluations tools