Learn more about this role

Every day, the Aladdin Client Services team tackles the hardest, most sophisticated problems in FinTech. We utilize our in-depth understanding of Aladdin, our clients' businesses, and the investment management process to provide world-class service to our rapidly-growing, global client base. We all studied different things and bring diverse skills and experiences to the table, but we share a serious passion for solving tough problems and keeping our clients happy.

What would you do as a summer intern?

- Answer questions and help our clients run their businesses on Aladdin.
- Use technology to solve problems: We will teach you the skills you need to succeed, such as maneuvering relational databases and parsing product logs.
- Educate users, demonstrate service insights, and relay user experience feedback to improve the client experience and our product
- Work on a global team, with a local presence: You will get to work with teams across the world, while still engaging with a vibrant local team.
